The TJC Story

Tennessee Justice Center (TJC) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization working to secure the basic necessities of life, including health care and nutrition, for Tennessee's most vulnerable children and families.

Over twenty-seven years ago, Congress laid siege to the American ideal of equal justice under law by severely restricting the activities and funding of Legal Services programs across the country. Out of response to those restrictions, the Tennessee Justice Center was born. Community and bar leaders from across the state and different political persuasions came together to make sure the legal needs of vulnerable Tennesseans would still be met.

Our Values

Tennesseans share the belief that all our neighbors have value and dignity, and all deserve the opportunity to thrive. Our laws and public policy should reflect these shared values.

- ★ All Tennesseans, regardless of income, race, disability, age, or illness should have access to care and services they need to live full, independent lives and avoid financial ruin.
- ★ Those facing hard times or unimagined obstacles should have necessary tools and support to rebuild their lives.
- ★ Our communities, our businesses, and our health care infrastructure are stronger when everyone has access to basic necessities like affordable health care, adequate nutrition, and other support they need to be healthy and thrive.

TJC works with others to foster strong communities that honor the dignity and potential of every Tennessean.

Our Vision

Tennessee can be a state which honors the inherent dignity and desire for opportunity for all its residents.

Together, we can build a state that reflects these common values and ensure that all Tennesseans have access to opportunity and lives of dignity.

When all Tennesseans have the opportunity to thrive, all of our communities will be stronger.
